Roosevelt Plans To Seek To Help Friends In Coming Primary Battles

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, June 25.—In the chaotic, most informal of the many radio talks he has given in the past, President Roosevelt served notice today that he is going to continue to howl to the new deal line that all of the new deal objectives have not been accomplished, and that he proposes to intervene in party primaries where he feels political liberalism is at stake.

Starts Campaign
Mr. Roosevelt's speech, in which he defended his objectives and promised a continued fight for them, was regarded as a curtain raiser for the trans-continental tour which he undertakes next month, a trip that will carry him through many states wherein his friends and his foes face the voters. He made it crystal clear he intends to help his friends and oppose his enemies.

With a recollection, perhaps, of what happened to Woodrow Wilson in 1918, when he called upon the country to return a Democratic congress on the ground of patriotism, Mr. Roosevelt declared he "was not asking the voters of the country to

Spanish Government Threatens Reprisals

(International News Service)

(Copyright, 1938, INS.)

LONDON, June 25.—Harassed by insurgent air raids which have taken uncounted civilian lives, the Spanish government at Barcelona today resorted to drastic action to halt bombing to open towns.

Barcelona, it was learned, warned both Britain and France that unless insurgent air raids on open towns cease, the government will consider severe reprisals, not against General Francisco Franco, but against points from which the raiders actually came.

This was interpreted in diplomatic quarters as a possible threat to send Spanish government bombers against Italian towns.

The warning was conveyed to the French ambassador at Barcelona by Spanish foreign minister Del Vayo. British foreign secretary Lord Halifax was notified by the Spanish representative here.

Paris immediately notified London that France would express to Barcelona strong disapproval of any such action. Britain was expected to make a similar reply to the Spanish government.

The Spanish government's position as outlined to both Britain and France is that Franco is unable to control the foreign air fighting for his insurgent forces.

Furthermore, Paris and London were informed, the Spanish government has no intention or desire to bomb Spanish people—even those in insurgent territory.

Barcelona argued, reprisals against the insurgent air raids "must be carried out against those directly responsible."

Japanese Are Backing Down On New Stand

Partial Shift In Decree On Abolition Of Extra-Territorial Rights Seen

MAKE CONDITIONS ON APPLICATION

Issue However, May Lead To Controversy Between Tokyo And Washington

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

SHANGHAI, June 25.—Japanese officials began to back down today from the stand they took with an announcement that extra-territorial right of foreigners in Japanese-controlled areas of China would be abolished.

Late today a Japanese embassy spokesman here said that non-recognition of extra-territoriality would be applied only if foreigners interfered with armed forces or the progress of the military campaign inside Japanese-held sections of China.

Shift In Attitude

This partial shift in the Japanese attitude followed reports from Washington that the United States would resist Japanese attempts to abolish the principle of extra-territoriality.

The Japanese spokesman said: "Some third party nations in Japan occupied territory appear to labor under the misconception that they are above Japanese law because they enjoy extra-territorial status in China. That is wrong."

It appeared that, despite the change in the Japanese view, the issue would still lead to a controversy between Tokyo and Washington. Meanwhile, wild rumors that the island of Hainan, off the southern coast of China and facing French Indo-China, has been invaded by Japanese forces were published by Chinese papers in Hong Kong. Authorities said the rumors were premature.

French Make Threats
The position of Hainan was admittedly ticklish, however, especially because of French threats to send troops there if the Japanese attempt to occupy the island.

Presence of numerous Japanese warships in southern Chinese waters would make it possible for the Japanese to land on Hainan at any moment. But it was considered unlikely that this would be attempted immediately owing to the possibility of grave Franco-Japanese complications.

(Copyright, 1938, INS.)

HANKOW, June 25.—Pittsburgh dispatches against warships in a campaign to stop Japan's naval drive up the Yangtze river. Chinese air-planes tonight sank two Japanese fighting craft and set two transports afire.

All four Chinese aerial squadrons, including warships, including Nipponese patrol planes, attacking armaments and strafing land units, raised up and down the Yangtze between Anlu and Hankow.

At the end of a week intensive operations, Chinese had brought the wreckage of Japanese vessels to 11 sunk or disabled by fire.

Evade Jap Planes
Five Japanese warships at Wuhan were destroyed.

Sunk 30 Japanese warships and transports were wrecked, sinking up the Yangtze, along to shell and land troops under the cover of naval batteries, with the Chinese raids took place.

To learn the huge Nipponese river fleet the Chinese have evaded flying Japanese squadrons, and then engaged in a thrilling aerial fight with 12 Japanese planes.

Riddled with bullets but able the Chinese were driven to their base at Hankow. According to Chinese aviation headquarters.

Chinese land forces at the same time attacked Japanese troops who had come ashore at Hankow and Hsienkung on the south bank of the Yangtze.

With 3,000 men and rifles, said the Chinese, the Japanese were driven back toward the west from both positions.

Mine-Sealing May Be Halted

(Copyright, 1938, INS.)

PITTSBURGH, June 25.—The mine-state federal mine-sealing project which has been in operation since 1933, today faces discontinuation by July 1 because of lack of funds.

Object of the project under the supervision of the United States Public Health Department was to seal abandoned mines and eliminate the pollution of rivers and streams. The work started in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, and Ohio, and has since been extended to include Alabama, Indiana, Kentucky, Maryland, Tennessee, and Illinois.

More than 100 engineers and chemists will be thrown out of work, it was stated here, as well as several hundred WPA workers, who have been doing the manual labor.

No explanation to the "stop work" order which arrived from Washington could be given here.

Rev. Fr. Biondi Will Sing Mass

Impressive Ceremony In St. Vitus Church, Sunday Morning At 11 O'Clock

REV. FARINA WILL DELIVER SERMON

At 11 o'clock, Sunday morning, in the beautiful high altar of the artistically arranged St. Vitus church, the Rev. Fr. Nicholas A. Biondi, son of Mrs. Theresa Biondi, and the late Paris Biondi, of 320 East Home street, will sing his first solemn high mass in accordance with the ritual of the Roman Catholic church. The occasion will mark the end of a strenuous scholastic career and the realization of a youthful call to the Catholic priesthood.

Born in this city on June 14, 1912, the Rev. Fr. Biondi showed an early inclination towards the priestly state. Under the paternal guidance of the benevolent Rev. Nicholas DeMita, pastor of St. Vitus church, the Rev. Fr. Biondi spent his boyhood days attending St. Vitus Parochial school. He was only a lad of 14 when he started his higher academic career.

Choosing the ancient and historic monastery of the Capuchin Fathers at Herman, Pa., as his future alma mater, the young protege inaugurated his first of 12 years towards vocational fulfillment. While at the Franciscan institution, the qualities of the Rev. Biondi, both in studies as well as in athletics were readily recognized. Exceptionally studious and conscientiousness to the utmost degree, proved to be the two outstanding characteristics of the newly ordained priest to give him perseverance in the attainment of his life's ambition.

Fear McCormick Has Been Killed

Companion Found Dead By Searchers In New Mexico Mountains

PAIR ESSAYED TO CLIMB MOUNTAIN

(International News Service)
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., June 25.—Gripped by promontories of a double tragedy, an army of searchers led by Gov. Clyde Tingley today resumed their hunt for the wealthy young sportsman and mountain climber, Merrill McCormick, 21.

Their starting point was the base of "The Shield," a sheer 2,000-foot cliff, where the crushed and broken body of Richard Whitmer, McCormick's hiking companion, was found late yesterday.

It was feared that McCormick, an heir to the vast fortunes of a family famous in the publishing and political fields, had met a similar fate when a furious rainstorm raged through the Sandia mountain range.

McCormick, son of Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick Simms and the late Senator Merrill McCormick of Chicago, left with Whitmer, who also was 21, to explore the mountains early Wednesday.

Record Throng At Reunion Of Alumni Friday

Former Graduates Of New Castle High Gather In Cathedral For Annual Event

PROGRAM PROVES INTERESTING ONE

With close to 400 present for the dinner and many additional attending the dance later in the evening, the annual reunion of the New Castle High School in the Cathedral Friday evening proved one of the most outstanding of these events in recent history. Alfred K. Owens was elected president for the coming year at the business session following the dinner. Other officers chosen were Mrs. Ruth Lewis Crowl, vice president; Miss Della Vancura, secretary; and John D. Kennedy, treasurer.

The program of entertainment was a happy one, just long enough to prove interesting and yet providing a variety of numbers which were thoroughly enjoyed.

Attorney Clarence A. Patterson served as toastmaster and was presented immediately after the dinner by Mrs. Charles E. Allen, the president. (Continued On Page Two)

At noon today the tin workers and their families had begun to arrive at Cascade park, set for the annual Tin Mill Day which is being held.

A heavy shower near 11 o'clock slowed up the crowd and shortly after noon it appeared there might be more rain.

At 1 o'clock the sports program was scheduled to start with Harry Wilson in charge. Base dancing was scheduled in the dancing pavilion and at 2:30 Leo Zepky was scheduled to speak. He is a labor leader connected with the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America.

Howard Reed, general chairman of the day, was busy all morning making last minute arrangements, seeing that everything was done and hoping for a large crowd.

Joining with the tin workers are the employees of the American Can company and in addition a number of former New Castle tin workers are here for the day renewing old acquaintances.

Mrs. John C. Syling, 827 Franklin avenue.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Our attention was called by readers of Friday's "News," that while some very interesting "pets" in Thursday's parade were mentioned, one overlooked was a young duck, that toddled along, led by a girl, with a blue ribbon attached to its neck. This entry brought much laughter and cheers from the on-looking crowd.

Tropical weather descended upon New Castle Friday, sending the mercury up to 83 degrees. That is the highest temperature so far this season. B. French Johnson, United States Weather Observer told PA News this morning. It is a rise of six degrees over the maximum temperature of the day before, and an increase of ten degrees over the maximum of the same 24-hour period a year ago.

Another freak of nature. In the yard of Thomas Minsters, West Washington street extension, is an apple tree which stands but 3 feet high and is almost one year old. On this tree are two small apples.

Germany Replies To U. S. Protest

Clarification To Be Needed

Answer To Protest On Registration Of American Property Not Satisfactory

ONE EXEMPTION TO ORDER IS INCLUDED

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Germany today handed to the American government a reply to its protest over compulsory registration of American property in the Reich which Secretary of State Cordell Hull immediately said would require further clarification.

The German government declared that American Jews living in Germany must comply with the German decree requiring registration of all Jewish-owned property.

Property owned in Germany by American Jews living in Germany, the government stated, will be exempted from the registration requirement.

The stipulation was made, however, that this exemption does not include former Germans who have emigrated from Germany for political reasons since 1933.

It was immediately made plain that the reply falls considerably short of satisfaction as far as the American government is concerned. Secretary Hull said that he is asking the Reich foreign office for further clarification.

Further demonstrated his scholarly ability when he successfully passed the diocesan scholarship examination at Duquesne college, enabling him to enter the philosophical school at the famed Benedictine Seminary of St. Vincent's at Latrobe. The scholastic reasoning of the deep thinking scholastic of old proved no barrier to the even greater perception of the Rev. Fr. Biondi, who was graduated from the Benedictine School of Philosophy with extremely wonderful success.

In June, 1934, the Rev. Fr. Biondi went to Central Catholic high school, Pittsburgh, to meet the necessary requirements previous to his entrance in the School of Theology at the colorful Benedictine Archabbey situated in the hills of Westmoreland county. Four years of theological endeavor, together with a life long interest in the liturgical rubrics of the Catholic rite, the deep seated interest of which was primarily paved by the Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita, whom he once served as an altar boy.

In June, 1937, the Rev. Fr. Biondi was ordained to the Major Order of Sub-Deaconship, with Deaconship following in the fall of the same year.

On June 12, this year, as a member of the class of '38, he was raised to the solemn dignity of a Roman Catholic Priest by the Right Reverend Hugh C. Boyle of the Pittsburgh Diocese, in St. Vincent's Archabbey.

His first mass at St. Vitus will be a memorable event in the life of the young priest. Upon the same altar whereupon he once served his guiding pastor, therefore, too, the Rev. Fr. DeMita will undoubtedly be proud to assist the young priest who so faithfully assisted him.

Popular Young Man

The Rev. Fr. Biondi is one of the most popular young men of the city.

Roving the outfield for such aggressions as the New Castle Indians, Scranton and the University, the one team to defeat the Pittsburgh Pirates in an exhibition battle. At St. Vincent, he was one of the outstanding athletes. He played for two years on the varsity nine. The Past Coach, the Rev. Fr. Jerome O. S. H., acclaimed the south side priest as one of the hardest hitting outfielders that he had ever seen in collegiate circles.

The Rev. Fr. DeMita, the clergyman whose advice guided the young priest in the fulfillment of his career, will assist the newly ordained priest on this solemn occasion, acting as Arch Priest. The Rev. Fr. DeMita will be at the side of his one altar boy, and witness the end of a long hoped for desire. Adding more impressiveness to the services will be the Rev. Fr. Dante DeLillo, likewise a newly ordained priest and a fellow class mate. The Rev. Fr. Herbert F. Butterback, former chaplain of the Civilian Conservation Corps and now assistant pastor of St. Vitus, will serve as sub-deacon. Two young seminarians of St. Vincent, assistant altar boys and life long friends of the Rev. Fr. Biondi, Joseph A. Mastrogiovanni and Raymond A. Mast will serve as master of ceremonies and Thurifer respectively. The sermon will be delivered by a former assistant of St. Vitus church, the Rev. Fr. Albert Farina, now assistant pastor of St. Simon and St. Jude church, Bialsville.

Special Music

The choir, under the direction of B. J. Biondi, will sing the most appropriate mass for the occasion, the Mass from Ravanello. Mrs. Lacko will be at the organ. The ceremony will start promptly at 11 o'clock with the newly ordained priest vested in the cope, and will be assisted by altar boys from the rectory to the main altar of the church. Prior to the mass, the chalice, a gift of Sarah J. McGarrigle, of Cleveland, Ohio, a lifelong friend of the Rev. Fr. Biondi, will be presented, as will the stole, a gift of the Rev. Fr. DeMita. Dressed completely in white for the ceremonies will be three boys, Ralph Palone, a nephew, Richard Baskie and Anthony Mastrogiovanni. Benediction will follow the solemn high mass and the blessing of the Rev. Fr. Biondi will be extended to all who attend. A short address, the first official of his kind on the part of the young priest, will be delivered.

vote for Democrats next November, as such was he, he said, taking part, as president, in Democratic primaries.

But as the head of the Democratic party, he asserted boldly, "charged with the responsibility of carrying out the democratic ideal, I am declaring of principle that I am for the 1938 Democratic platform." He said he has every right to speak in these instances where there may be a clear issue between candidates for a Democratic nomination involving these principles of carrying out the democratic ideal.

To Feel Roosevelt Wrath

In other words, those dissenting Democrats who have strayed from the 1936 platform, or who are trying to coast to re-nomination on the Rooseveltian coat-tails, despite the vulnerability of their new deal policies, are going to feel the Rooseveltian wrath. It will be visited upon them in the summer when they are open to a president in office. The first manifestation of it is expected to be revealed in the forthcoming trip to the Pacific coast.

The president had both praise and censure for the 75th congress, the great st. patrician congress in history, which contained more Democrats than were ever assembled under the dome of the Capitol.

He cited its accomplishments, mentioning the new triple A act, the wage-hour bill, the social security act, the social-to-learn monopoly study, the coordination of government control over aviation, the aid to housing and to small business in the ways of tax revision, the new funds for PWA and WPA, and the betterment of national defense. All these he cited as all to the good and for the public weal.

But recalling his dissent on the government's reorganization bill, he observed that the 75th congress had "refused to provide for more business-like machinery" for running the executive branch of the government.

He realized, too, the bitter fight over the supreme court reorganization bill, and did not concede defeat. It was true, he admitted, that the congress did not actually go through with his original reorganization bill, but he asserted his "real objectives" in the court battle had been achieved.

Duran was known in New Castle and came here in his capacity as an altar boy. His home was in Ambler, Pa. He was a very fine young man who was killed while fighting for the Soviet troops in Spain, in May of this year, it is stated.

No Statement On Wage Cuts

U. S. Steel Says No Assurances Have Been Given On Matter

PRICE REDUCTIONS MADE ON FRIDAY

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN

International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, June 25.—The United States Steel Corporation announced today that no official of the company has given any assurance that wage reductions will not follow the steel price reductions made public yesterday.

Reports had been current that a private pledge had been given by the company against wage cuts at this time. A New York newspaper today stated that shortly after the price reduction was announced "cautiously advised" reached Washington indicating the pledge had been made. The newspaper said the corporation's "assurances" were understood to have come direct from Edward R. Steinhilber, chairman of the board of directors.

Today the corporation issued this brief statement:

"No official of the United States Steel Corporation has given any assurance that wage reductions will not follow steel price reductions announced yesterday."

According to the reports in New York, the "assurances" were relayed to Washington personally by Steinhilber shortly before President Roosevelt made his radio address last night. In his address the president said:

"Today a great steel company announced a reduction in price, a view of stimulating business recovery, and I was gratified to know that this reduction involved no wage cut. Every encouragement should be given to industry which accepts a large volume-high wage policy."

You Are A Vital Link In The Great Chain Of Credit

Credit is like a chain of many links—made up of producers, manufacturers, retailers and professional men and YOU the customer.

You are a vital link! For prompt payment on your part starts the money around "the credit circle" through the retailer and professional man to the manufacturer, the producer and the worker, and whether your income is from labor or stocks and bonds, it will come back to you.

But if you fail to meet your obligations promptly, the credit chain is broken—if you delay payment of a bill, you are taking the amount of that bill out of circulation, and, perhaps unintentionally, retarding business recovery.

Let's pull together! Let's use our credit—buy what we need—and, by paying promptly, give others a chance to earn what they need.

Miners Protest Move To Abandon Coal Properties

PHILADELPHIA, June 25.—Declaring the action would mean loss of jobs for thousands of miners, the United Mine Workers of America today entered formal protest against a petition of the Reading Coal and Iron Company, or permission to abandon large-scale coal operations in up-state Pennsylvania.

The company, endeavoring to work out a reorganization plan in the U. S. District Court, seeks to discontinue operations at eight leased coal mines and at two collieries of its own and to abandon 223,000 acres of coal lands.

The plan has been advocated by a majority bondholders' committee in an effort to limit company production to approximately 1,000,000 tons a year and to save royalties, rentals and $100,000 in taxes.

Besides loss of the miners' jobs, the abandonment would leave the company without sufficient mines to fill future orders, the union maintained.

The protest was filed by Arthur J. Sullivan, of Wilkes-Barre, attorney for Carl F. Brennan, president, and Joseph Kerechsky, vice president, of the union.

The union brief demanded that the company prove that it "is at all necessary" to divert itself of the lands.

Mrs. Mary Oster, who has been confined to her home with illness for some time, showing slight improvement. She is recovering at the home of her niece, Mrs. Louis Morgan, on East Hazel street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rodgers and son, John Jr., of Pittsburgh, are visiting over the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Hopkins and Mr. and Mrs. Ward Reinhold of Sheridan avenue.

JOE LOUIS EAGER FOR NEXT BATTLE

Champion Arrives Back In Chicago Home With His Wife Marva

Thinks That Maxie Baer Will Be His Opponent In Bout In September

By CHESTER YOCILL

CHICAGO, June 25.—A broad smile on his resolute face, Joe Louis slipped quietly into Chicago Friday and all he wanted to do was talk about his next fight.

With his wife, Marva, and Manager Jimmy Black, the heavyweight champion returned home from his one-round victory over Max Baer in New York on the Twentieth Century Limited.

The party left off the train at the Englewood station on the south side of the city, and after breakfast with the Blacks, Joe and his wife went to their south side home.

Ready For Next Fight.

The station was virtually deserted, but a group of businessmen and Negro and caps surrounded the champion and greeted him with shouts and thumps on the back.

Louis, wearing a gray sports suit, said: "I am ready right now for my next fight. It will be against Max Baer."

"Baer always is dangerous, because he can punch. You never can tell when a fellow like that will do. He's liable to let you have one on the chin any time."

Eager To Fight.

Apparently eager to keep on fighting, Joe said there also was a possibility he would meet Tommy Farr, one of the few men to go the distance with him, or Gusner Barland, who recently scored a big upset knockout over Buddy Baer.

Joe inquired how Schmeling, in a New York hospital with a spinal injury, was coming along.

"I'm sure sorry about that boy," he commented. "I didn't mean to hurt him so badly. I'm sure I'll be able to help him. I'll be glad to let him know I'm here. I could feel my fist sink away into his body. I know I had hurt him then."

A significant note in a Gene Tunney, former custodian of the heavyweight crown and noted more or less as a lover of Shakespeare, was sounded when Joe revealed that he had entered the literary lists.

Asked how he intended to spend his time in Chicago, the champion replied: "Well, I'm going to do an awful lot of reading, and rest. I sure am fond of books. I'm just beginning to see there is a lot of fun in books."

At this point, Mrs. Louis, looking very fresh in a blue suit, decided it was time to make a break for home.

"Joe certainly proved he is a great fighter," she said, steering the subject away from books. "No, I didn't see the fight. I never go. The only one she saw was the first Schmeling bout in which Joe was knocked out, and she fainted."

Come on, Joe, we'd better be getting home."

ONE-CLUB ARTIST TO PLAY

There are one-club golfers, namely Jimmy Nichols, but when it comes to one-club golfers there is Eddie Pritchard, commander of the Legion of Honor and a would-be golfer.

Mr. Pritchard not only says that he will use one-club and one-club, but that he will beat any of the so-called good golfers in the Legion of Honor ranks. The match Monday at the "Mun" should be worth seeing.

Mr. Pritchard claims that he has never been on a golf course before, not even to serve a warrant when he was Sheriff Eddie a while back. Anyhow, he is going to show the members of his order that golf is golf even with one-club.

The matches will start at 4:30 o'clock. Quite a good sized turnout is looked for the one-club exhibition.

Eleven Teams In Softball Second Half

Reiters Join League For Second Half, Crisci Conducts Three-Hour Session

There will be all probability be 11 or 12 teams in the City Softball league for the second half of the season. It was made known by Franklyn "Frub" Crisci, president of the league, today. A three-hour meeting of the league was held at the "X" last night.

Plan For Banquet.

The league will take in the Reiters team and also the Canyon A. C. for the second half, in addition to the ten teams that finished the first half. Any player not signed up with any other team can play in the league, but players under contract must finish the season with the teams they are now with. The Canyons have until next Wednesday to join the league. They were not represented last night.

Plans were talked over about the coming banquet of the City Softball league. Crisci is planning for the biggest softball banquet that has ever been held in New Castle. The league had adopted an 18-inch Coleman pitching slab and any team without a proper slab the second half will forfeit such games.

The teams were all given a warning by Mr. Crisci to keep the crowds back off the playing field.

The Goldsmith ball A44 was officially adopted as the league ball last night.

Moran Loses To Oil City Boxer

Mickie Medwick Loses On Foul To Dave Nemeth In Second

FRANKIE KARICK STOPS MATTHEWS

This city had its revival of amateur boxing last night in the Grove street playground which recently was converted into a parklike area.

The first bout was a bout of amateurs and every one of the fans usually included who journeyed to the punch center witnessed action.

In fact, there were three knockouts, knockdowns and action galore. Everything went off systematically and indications are the arena will be jammed again next Friday when more bouts will be held.

One of the surprises of the evening's event was the defeat by Smokey Robinson, Oil City featherweight, of Frankie Moran, this city's popular 126-pound southerner.

They battled fairly even in the first half on the second Robinson fopped Frankie for a count of one.

In the third Moran hurt Robinson but his rally was not sufficient to produce him the decision in three rounds.

Mickie Medwick, local heavyweight, lost on a foul to Dave Nemeth of Youngstown in the second round. Mickie had the best of the first part of the initial round and Dave took the last portion. In the second round Medwick sustained a cut above one of his eyes. Medwick dropped Nemeth and hit him with his down and referee Tom McMahon awarded the decision to Nemeth.

Jack Matthews, a Wampum middleweight, did not last long with Frankie Karick of Youngstown. They were fighting only a short time when Karick dropped Matthews in a corner. He fell face downward. His head lay on the floor for a moment. Referee McMahon gave him a 10-second count then helped him to a corner.

Scale Keynote Words.

The fans who gathered on the playground were given a lesson in scale by Nick Roberts of Elk River City and then came Bill Rode of New Castle to knock out Chuck Woods in the third round of a fight which started out with Woods doing a dramatic away and Rode trying to catch him which he did finally.

Chuck Arker, defeated Phil Phillips of Oil City in a 142-pound class. Both were first in the area and the battle was so close that the referee differed as to the winner and the referee gave the nod to the local fighter.

The results were as follows:

Frankie Karick of New Castle defeated Len Platt of Youngstown by a decision in a 142-pound class bout.

Eddie Bunt of Butler defeated Nick Roberts of Elk River City by a decision in the 140-pound class.

Bill Rode of New Castle knocked out Chuck Woods of Oil City in the third round in the 142-pound class.

Chuck Arker of New Castle defeated Phil Phillips of Oil City in the 142-pound class.

Johnny Monahan of Youngstown knocked out Jimmy Scott of Oil City in the second round in the 112-pound class.

Mickie Medwick of New Castle lost on a foul to Dave Nemeth of Youngstown in the second round of a heavyweight class bout.

Frankie Karick of Youngstown dropped out Jack Matthews of Wampum in the first round in the 126-pound class.

Jackie Robinson of Oil City defeated Frankie Moran of New Castle in the 126-pound class.

The judges were Jimmie Winton and Bill Fuzzone. Lou Brady kept time. Bugs Walker was the announcer and Tom McMahon kept the referee. B. J. Borge represented the State Athletic Commission.

It was announced that eight bouts will be held again next Friday night.

WANT MORE GAMES

The strong Wabash Bears softball team wants to be games with any fast team, such as Wabash, Pades, Spencers, Eagles, etc. For information write to: William Damburk, manager, 162 North Liberty Street.

Besides offering the $200,000 in American currency to be deposited in a New York bank upon signing of contracts, he holds out the alternative of Louis taking 40 per cent of the receipts if the percentage would give him a bigger purse than the guarantee. Cassette for five would be thrown in for good measure.

He also agrees to cut Jacobs in on the promotion, this deal to be arranged later.

STOCKS

Market Goes
Still HigherFor Sixth Straight Day
Stock Market Moves Up,
Steel Shares DominateBy LESLIE GOULD
International News Service
Financial Writer

NEW YORK, June 25.—The stock market today, June 25, was a day of steady advance, with a sharp reversal of an opening decline. Gains running to more than a point quickly replaced initial losses of equal size, and trading, which had slowed on the momentary reaction, picked up sharply with the ticker taping 3 minutes behind.

Steel shares dominated the market, leading the opening decline on overnight news of steel price reductions by U. S. Steel subsidiaries. When the news was received, steel shares were given to wage cuts would follow, the group made a right about face and lifted the general market trend.

Continuation of the spectacular advance which had its inception at the start of the week, carried the industrial averages to new high levels since last February, an advance in a few points of the 1938 peak.

The early slide in prices encountered substantial numbers of buy orders under the market. By the end of the first half-hour the reaction had been checked and the list had started to reverse its trend. Midway through the two-hour session the steel shares started their upward surge, and before long the entire list joined in.

Utilities, motors, electrical equipment and farm implements vied with steel for leadership. Outside markets were generally quiet and featureless. In commodities, grains and cotton held close to previous closing levels. The bond list closely followed the pattern of stocks, starting slightly easier but recovering before the close.

Among the representative stocks to gain a point or more after losing ground at the start were U. S. Steel, Chrysler, Westinghouse, Case, Youngstown Sheet & Tube and Philip Morris.

Food shares and a few specialties, as American Can, were backward.

Activities started with an "ice-breaker" with prizes going to Mrs. Alice Abbott, Mrs. Martha Grafton and Mrs. Elsie Clark.

The ladies then called the meeting to order and introduced the first speaker of the evening, Mrs. Alice Abbott, Union St. Westinghouse, of the Gen. LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE—PEG-LEG OR LISTENING POST

Williamson Writes About New Castleites Out West

Writing from his home in Long Beach, Cal., I. A. Williamson, former resident here, reports on the activities of "former New Castleites" in the west coast.

His letter is as follows:

"We have been having very unusual weather for some time past; continued cloudiness seems to be the order so far this season, with occasional rains in sections. This kind of weather at this time of the year is unusual. About in the latter part of May we had quite a sharp quake, causing many of us to get up and look around, but there was no damage done.

Regarding the weather, on the 14th of June it was just what the Ramblers' club had ordered. For their getting together at Echo park, just across the street from Amy's temple. It was our first gathering in a long time, and we had a large turnout. There were places arranged at the table for 66, and every place was occupied. We partook of viands fit for a king, and not all that were in attendance partook of the good ones. For quite a few had eaten their mid-day meal at home and had come to enjoy the good fellowship which always exists at our gatherings. And they kept coming until late afternoon, until nearly 100 were registered. It was gratifying to see so many of the young folks from the old home town. Quite a few have come out here to locate permanently.

There were many new faces at this outing, and some of the older members who haven't been at any of our gatherings for some time. Among the new faces to be recognized were Sandy Howard and son, Mr. Sines and Mr. Gardner from the North Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Dunn and son and Mrs. Dunn's mother.

A Mr. Speer who has been out here for quite a long time, and Mr. and Mrs. Rogers and Mr. Isabella and Mr. Blomd with their lady friends, and a Mr. Barshart and others. I tried to get the names of all who registered but failed, so will do my best from memory. I will first mention Bert Davis, the promoter of this club. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Waddington and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson and sons, Frank Jr. and Tommy.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest McCray, Mr.

and Mrs. Bruner, Mr. and Mrs. James Blum and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. Edger Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Vogan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kunkel, and Frank Jr., Miss Rachel Hamilton, Mrs. Brown nee Middlehurst, Ed. Farrell and mother, Ed. Speer, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Patterson and daughters, Miss Norris and sister, Miss Myra McBride.

Miss Blanch Hanna, Miss Viola Dix, Mrs. Anna McCune, Charles Barnett and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bynham, Dennis McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Motter and daughters, Bob Black and others, including your humble servant and wife.

Now for a few members who were not in attendance at this gathering. They are Fred Vandegrift and family, Tom Hammond and wife, John Cline and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Saterfield, Mr. and Mrs. Haun, Mrs. Lou McInure, Mr. and Mrs. McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. E. Guigan, Mr. and Mrs. Stewer, Mr. and Mrs. Stoop, Mr. and Mrs. Short.

There is another meeting called for July 31 and we hope that most of these late named folks will be in attendance. In conclusion I may say that all the members of our club seem to be pretty well satisfied with their prospects out here.

We all unite in wishing our friends back home good health and prosperity.

And thanking The News for past favors, I remain as ever,

I. A. WILLIAMSON,

655 E. Linden Avenue,

Long Beach, Cal.
